UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT
NORTHERN DISTRICT OF OHIO
EASTERN DIVISION

IN RE:)	CHAPTER 7
)
TERESA ANN KITZMILLER,)	CASE NO. 10-61455
)
Debtor.)	JUDGE RUSS KENDIG
)
)	ORDER GRANTING
)	APPLICATION TO PROCEED
)	IN FORMA PAUPERIS

This matter is before the court on Debtor's Application to Proceed In Forma Pauperis (hereafter "application") filed on April 8, 2010. Debtor has complied with the Court's requests for additional information.

Under the Bankruptcy Abuse Prevention and Consumer Protection Act of 2005, debtors are permitted to seek a waiver of the bankruptcy filing fee. Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1930(f), a "bankruptcy court may waive the filing fee . . . if the court determines that such individual has less than 150 percent of the income official poverty line . . . applicable to a family of the size involved and is unable to pay that fee in installments." The Court's ability to waive the filing fee is permissive, not mandatory. The Court must consider both qualitative and quantitative factors in its decision.

The applicable poverty income levels are available from the Department of Health and Human Services and can be found at:

According to the chart, the poverty income for a family of three, at 150% of poverty, is $2,288.75 per month. According to the application, Debtor's combined average monthly income, as stated on line 16 of Schedule I, is $1,385.49. Debtor's pay advices demonstrate that the actual amount may be lower. Consequently, the Court finds that Debtor's income is less than 150% of the official poverty lien for a family of three.

Next, the Court must determine whether Debtor has the ability to pay the filing fee in installments. Debtor's application, and Schedule J, itemize monthly expenses of $2,100.00. Debtor's expenses are not unreasonable. Schedule J also shows Debtor's income is not sufficient to pay all of her monthly expenses, resulting in a monthly shortfall of $714.50. Debtor's monthly income does not allow her to make installment payments on the filing fee. Further, Debtor's 2009 federal income tax refund indicates she owes money to the federal government. Based on these facts, the Court finds that Debtor does not have the ability to pay the filing fee in installments.

In light of the above, the Court hereby GRANTS Debtor's application to waive the filing fee. This order applies only to the initial case filing fee and not any subsequent fees which may be payable by Debtor in this case. This order is subject to being vacated at a later time if developments in the administration of the bankruptcy case demonstrate that the waiver was unwarranted.

It is so ordered.
